WHERE ARE THEY NOW?
Raynoch Thompson • LB • 1997-99

Q: What are you doing now for a living?

A: "An independent scouting service. A former player of mine that played at Arizona and I (are) doing an independent scouting service called Draftnasty.com. We've been working that, doing outsource work with the NFL Network, and we've been covering the NFL Draft. Check it out when you get some time."

Q: What teammates do you still keep in touch with?

A: "Everybody! Corey (Gaines), Al Wilson, we're here for his charity golf tournament. Shaun Ellis, Jamal Lewis, we keep up with just about everybody, Peyton (Manning). Everybody keeps in touch. It's just a family. Once you're a part of the Tennessee family, it goes on forever. Phil Crosby here, it goes all the way back 10 years ago."

Q: What was your favorite memory as a Vol?

A: "Of course, winning a national championship. I can't even explain that feeling. I played in a lot of NFL games but there's nothing like winning. I love the college atmosphere, but there's nothing like winning that national championship, so it was a great experience."

WALKER
TENNESSEE VOLUNTEER

In our weekly chat with senior Chris Walker, the always colorful defensive end sheds light on sporting a Superman backpack around campus and being a "big kid." The 12 quarterbacks the Vols face this year probably wish he really was a big kid.

CW: "I'm a big kid, actually. I'm always watching cartoons. I'm always watching SpongeBob. I watch SpongeBob every day. I think it all came from (former Vols' basketball player) Wayne Chism. I saw he had a Bert and Ernie hat on one day (and) some pajama pants on that were pretty cool so I started to take his swag since he was leaving. My favorite action hero is Superman. I've got two posters in my room of him."

Things about "Football Time in Tennessee"

5. The Vol Walk

As we come down through the T and see all the fans cheering us on and getting us hyped up. You know it's game time around the corner.

4. Traveling with the Team

All of us guys getting together on one airplane or one bus and the camaraderie as a team and coming together and getting to travel together is a really neat experience.

3. The Fans

Everyone coming in here flooding the stadium with orange. The emotion on the field, we can feel it. As players, that is something to really look forward to.

2. The Band

When they come out here and you can hear them playing Rocky Top in warmups. It just makes you feel college football and the passion. All the emotion you feel around Saturday is just unbelievable because of the band.

1. Running Through the "T"

You know it's game time as soon as you run through the "T" as the crowd is going crazy and they're playing Rocky Top. You get all those aspects I just talked about into one. It's just an unbelievable feeling.

9/4 in UT Football History

■ Times Played: Three (vs. Duke 1982/vs. Louisiana Tech 1993/vs. Wyoming 1999)

■ Record: 2-1

■ Most Memorable Moment/Game: Led by three sacks apiece from Shaun Ellis (1997-99) and Darwin Walker (1997-99), the Vols collectively tallied a team-record 13 sacks versus Wyoming. Ellis' and Walker's performances are tied as the third-best individual efforts in UT history. Eric Westmoreland (1996-00) became the most recent Vol to date to recover two fumbles in the same outing, a UT record matched by 11 others.

■ Notable:

- Cedrick Wilson (1997-00): Career-best 183 receiving yards vs. Wyoming good for the 12th-best mark in Vols history.
- John Becksvooort (1991-94): 51-yard field goal versus Louisiana Tech in 1992 ranks as the seventh-longest distance and is tied for the 20th-best mark overall in UT annals.
- Aaron Hayden (1991-94) and Jamal Lewis (1997-99) each notched the fourth-best rushing efforts in their careers with 119 yards vs. Louisiana Tech and 159 yards vs. Wyoming, respectively.

BEHIND THE UNITS

Which quarterback would win a Mixed Martial Arts (MMA) Tournament?

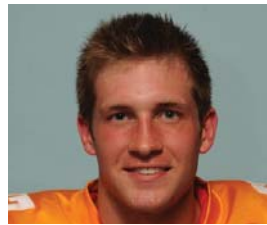

#2 Matt Simms

"I would definitely say myself because I actually have some training sessions in mixed martial arts in New Jersey with a guy named Martin Rooney, who trains the Gracie family in Brazil. I can't lie, but I can throw a pretty sick arm-bar or rear naked chokehold in there. Or I can put you in the guillotine. It's either way you want. I do have a little skill in that."

#8 Tyler Bray

"It would probably be between me and Matt Simms. He's the biggest and the strongest quarterback but I have family who's owned part of MMA, so I've watched it for awhile. I know all the moves and stuff. I'd probably go with Matt. He's a little stronger than me. If I gain a little weight, I might be able to take him."

#17 Tyler Page

"I don't know. We have some fun times together, and it gets heated sometimes, just for kicks. Tyler Bray can be pretty vicious, but I'd probably have to say Matt Simms. He's a stocky dude and he's got a grit to him for sure. And he's from up north."

Quotable:

"This place is special. It really is because of that. A lot of people take it for granted. A lot of people don't really appreciate how special those things are. But it is. I told them I knew about most of these traditions before I even got the job because I grew up watching it. It's awesome. They're going to leave here believing that, too."

Head Coach Derek Dooley, on the Tennessee football traditions

Remembering Haywood

Haywood Harris' black and white words were the rites of fall in Big Orange Country for media and Vol fans alike in the way only he could shed light on Tennessee's upcoming season.

Haywood's no-nonsense, barber shop style of prose was timeless. From the excitement of a new coach to the veterans he worked with over the seasons to even the General, Haywood made most folks feel good about the Vols' possibilities and welcome in Neyland Stadium. Haywood, a fixture in the Tennessee athletic department since the 1961 season, died this summer. He was 80.

Tennessee will commemorate Haywood's seat in the press box prior to Saturday's game against UT Martin. Knoxville media legends Russ Bebb (seat No. 7), Gary Lundy (No. 54) and Lindsey Nelson (No. 90) already have seats recognized in the Tom Elam Press Box.

Home Cookin'

For just the ninth time in Tennessee football history and the third time since 1978, the Vols will open up their season with four consecutive games in Knoxville.

UT holds a 25-9 (.735) record in those games and is 54-27-1 (.665) overall in years in which they kick-off the season with at least four straight contests at home. Two of those campaigns (1915 & 1977) saw the Vols defending their home field for a UT-record five games before hitting the road.

Here's how the Vols finished when starting the season with at least four at home:

Year	Start	Final
1902	3-1	6-2
1908	4-0	9-0-1
1915	4-1	4-4
1931	4-0	9-0-1
1963	2-2	5-5
1977	2-3	4-7
2004	3-1	10-3
2006	3-1	9-4
Overall	25-9	54-27-1

A New Decade

Now that it's 2010, the Vols are entering a new decade. Tennessee has enjoyed its share of success to open every 10-year period, being named national champions in 1940 and 1950. The Vols also won SEC titles in 1940 and 1990.

Looking back at the last 100 years:

Year	Record	Titles
2000	8-4	--
1990	9-2-2	SEC Champions
1980	5-6	--
1970	11-1	--
1960	6-2-2	--
1950	11-1	National Champions
1940	10-1	National Champions SEC Champions
1930	9-1	--
1920	7-2	--
1910	3-5-1	--
1900	3-2-1	--

Happy Birthday, Vol Walk

This season, the Tennessee game day tradition of the Vol Walk celebrates its 20th anniversary. Then head coach Johnny Majors started the official Saturday march to Neyland Stadium prior to the Alabama game on Oct. 20, 1990.

In 1989, the team walked unofficially to the games from Bill Gibbs Dormitory. That phenomenon caught on with fans. However, the first publicized and announced Vol Walk did not take place until the Alabama game in 1990.

On rare occasions due to inclement weather, the team busses directly to Gate 21.

The Vol Walk has been moved its start time of 2 hours, 15 minutes prior to kickoff. The team will walk down Peyton Manning Pass, take a left on Phillip Fulmer Way and enter the stadium at the newly remodeled Gate 21.

Where Youth Will Be Served

Tennessee's 2010 signing class was ranked ninth in the nation by Rivals.com, and several of those signees will have a chance to see action in their first season opener. In the depth chart for UT Martin, 16 Vols in the two-deep are freshmen.

In fact, three freshmen are listed as potential starters for Saturday. JerQuari Schofield (6-6, 331) and Ju'Wuan James (6-7, 313) are slated to get the starting nod at left guard and right tackle respectively. Either Eric Gordon (5-10, 186) or sophomore Marsalis Teague (5-10, 178) will start at right cornerback.

Nine Vols with Diplomas Ranks Third

As the 2010 season looms, nine Vols will suit up as graduates of Tennessee. Chad Cunningham, Daniel Lincoln, Cody Pope, Nick Reveiz, Jarrod Shaw, Luke Stocker, Victor Thomas, LaMarcus Thompson and Tyler Wolf all earned their college degrees before the 2010 football season.

With nine active graduates slated for action this season, Tennessee is third in the nation behind Boston College (14) and Auburn (11). Kansas State, Virginia Tech and UCF are tied with eight.

Position Swap

Three Vols have changed sides of the ball during the offseason. Junior Austin Johnson moved from fullback to linebacker and earned the Andy Spiva Award, given to the most improved defensive player during spring practice.

Sophomore Marsalis Teague made a surprise move to start fall camp, going from wide receiver to becoming a potential starter at the right corner position. Last year, Teague had 13 catches and 2 touchdowns.

In the case of senior defensive lineman Victor Thomas, the move meant a shift back to his normal position. He moved to center during spring practice and but returned to defensive tackle this fall.

Recap the Draft

Tennessee had six players selected in the NFL Draft this April. Two former UT standouts were selected in the first round, All-America safety Eric Berry (1st round, 5th pick, Kansas City Chiefs) and All-SEC defensive linemen Dan Williams (1st round, 26th pick, Arizona Cardinals).

The Browns traded up in the second round to grab running back Montario Hardesty (2nd round, 59th pick, Cleveland Browns), while two former offensive line starters in Jacques McClendon (4th round, 129th pick, Indianapolis Colts) and Chris Scott (5th round, 151st pick, Pittsburgh Steelers) were drafted on the third day. Starting quarterback Jonathan Crompton (5th round, 168th pick, San Diego Chargers) was also taken.

Tennessee had the third-highest total selected in the SEC with six. A total of 44 former Volunteers have been chosen in the first round of the NFL Draft, the highest of any SEC school.

Preseason All-SEC

Among the near-countless summer preseason all-conference selections, three Vols -- Stocker, Reveiz and Walker -- were named preseason All-SEC by the coaches or media.

Luke Stocker is on the watch list for the John Mackey Award, given annually to the nation's best tight end. Chris Walker is one of 36 candidates for the Ted Hendricks Defensive End of the Year Award.

Among many other awards, Eric Berry won the Jim Thorpe Award last season and was a finalist for both the Bronko Nagurski and Lott Trophy awards.

Herald Gerald

With another stellar season in 2010, senior wide-out Gerald Jones will likely find himself among the top 10 in two main receiving categories in the UT record books. With 87 catches under his belt, Jones needs 27 receptions to slide past Lucas Taylor (2005-08) into the top 10 for career receptions. The stand-out receiver, who has amassed 1,114 receiving yards in three years, can also move into the top 10 in career receiving yards by adding 634 to his total. Donte' Stallworth (1999-2001) is currently 10th on the list with 1,747. If Jones leads the team in reception yards in 2010, he will become just the fifth receiver in UT history to do so in three consecutive seasons.

Here's where he stacks up on the career lists:

■ Career Receptions

8. Tim McGee, 1982-85 123
9. Larry Seivers, 1973-76 117
10. Lucas Taylor, 2005-08 113

Gerald Jones, 2007-Pres. 87

■ Career Receiving Yards

Stock(er) Market Rising

Senior tight end Luke Stocker looks to have a breakout season after improving his numbers each season since he began his playing career at UT in 2007 and finishing 2009 with a flurry. In his junior slate, Stocker's numbers increased by 16 receptions, 250 yards, and five touchdowns. In the Vols' final two regular season games last season, Stocker registered 10 receptions, 125 yards, and a pair of touchdowns.

The individual season records for a tight end are 41 receptions (Chris Brown, 2007), 493 yards (Jason Witten, 2002) and seven touchdowns (Austin Denney, 1966).

Year	Receptions	Net Yards	TD
2007	4	11	1
2008	13	139	0
2009	29	389	5

Third-Season Starters

Stocker and senior fullback Kevin Cooper are entering their third season starting at their respective positions. Stocker has started all 25 games the last two seasons, while Cooper has started 19 of them. Jones has started 15 games over the last two seasons at wide receiver.

Cooper enjoyed a breakout season as a receiving option last year, catching 12 passes with an average of 9.2 yards per catch. The Chattanooga native caught his first career touchdown on a two-yard pass against South Carolina last year.

New at Tailback

Junior Tauren Poole is slated as the starter for the Vols at tailback and is charged with filling the void left by Montario Hardesty, who rushed for more than 1,300 yards in 2009.

Poole has put together solid performances in fall camp scrimmages. If his high school career is any indication, he can roll up the offensive yardage. He set the Stephens County (Ga.) High School records for career rushing (5,519) and touchdowns (79).

Sophomore David Oku made a name for himself as a kick returner last season, returning 33 kicks for 863 yards. He is listed behind Poole on the depth chart.

The QB Family

No doubt about it: the Simms are a quarterback family. Junior Matt Simms, listed as starter for Saturday's opener, is the son of Super Bowl champion quarterback Phil Simms and the younger brother of Chris Simms, who currently plays for the Tennessee Titans.

Matt Simms arrived at UT in January from El Camino Community College in California, where he passed for 2,204 yards and 17 touchdowns.

Hunter Also a Track Star

Freshman wide receiver Justin Hunter had a busy summer on the track, a sport in which he's found national success. In June, he won the long jump at the USA Junior National Championships with a leap of 25 feet, 10.75 inches. Hunter later represented the U.S. at the IAFF World Junior Track & Field Championships, where he finished sixth.

Good to Be Home

More often than not, the Vols had little problem posting high point totals last season at Neyland Stadium. They scored at least 30 points in six of eight home games, posting a season-high 63 points in the 2009 opener against Western Kentucky. The other 30+ point performances at home include Memphis (56), Georgia (45), Ohio (34), South Carolina (31) and Vanderbilt (31).

Thomas had moved from defensive tackle to center during spring practice but returned to the D-Line during the fall.

Spotlight On:

Senior wide receiver Denarius Moore led the Vols with seven touchdowns in 2009 among his 40 catches for 540 yards. He had a 13.5 yard-per-catch average. Moore, one of four returning starters on offense, has more than 1,000 career yards in the 39 times he has seen action for the Vols.

Defense: The Return

Senior Chris Walker and transfer Malik Jackson bookend the Vols defensive line and are accompanied by veteran players everywhere the look. Willie Bohannon, Steven Fowlkes, Montori Hughes and Victor Thomas all saw significant time on last season's squad, which was one of the nation's top 25 defenses. Senior Victor Thomas, local product Rae Sykes, along with freshmen Arthur Jeffery, Corey Miller and Jacques Smith should also be key to shoring up the line.

At linebacker, the fierce Nick Reveiz returns to torment opposing rushers along with seniors LaMarcus Thompson and Savion Frazier, juniors Austin Johnson and Daryl Vereen, and a trio of sophomores-- Herman Lathers, Nigel Mitchell-Thornton and Greg King.

The secondary features a stable of returners, who last year aided the Big Orange's 12th-place NCAA ranking in both passing defense and passing efficiency defense. Art Evans, Eric Gordon, Anthony Anderson and Marsalis Teague hold down the cornerback position. Meanwhile, Janzen Jackson fills the shoes of safety Eric Berry with the help of Prentiss Wagner, Rod Wilks and Tyler Wolf.

It Begins With the Ends

The ability of senior defensive end Chris Walker and newcomer Malik Jackson to replicate the Vols'

2009 success of wreaking havoc on the opposing team's quarterback will play a key role in the Vols' defense this season. Jackson steps in to relieve senior Ben Martin, who is sidelined with an Achilles' injury.

Walker, who last season doubled his sack total from 2008, ranked ninth in the conference while dragging the quarterback down six times behind the line of scrimmage. He also tied for the team lead in interceptions with a pair.

Starting Again

Tennessee's defense, historically one of the nation's stingiest, returns five starters from a strong 2009 squad. Defensive end Chris Walker, linebackers Nick Reveiz and LaMarcus Thompson, cornerback Art Evans and safety Janzen Jackson all return to pound opponents in 2010. The quintet collectively boast 180 tackles, 22 of them for a loss of 104 yards-- including eight sacks for a loss of 63 yards-- and forced seven turnovers.

Reveiz Back in the Saddle

After his junior season ended earlier than expected due to injury, senior Nick Reveiz (left) returns to the playing field for the first time since Sept. 26, 2009. The gritty walk-on turned scholarship player has transformed into one of the Vols emotional leaders on and off the field. During the 30 games Reveiz has played thus far in his career on The Hill, he has snagged 60 total tackles and looks to gain a whole lot more now that he's back on the field.

Jackson: Filling in Big Shoes

Sophomore safety Janzen Jackson is left with the footprint of his record-breaking predecessor Eric Berry. But judging by the numbers Jackson posted in his freshman campaign, he may leave some big shoes as well. In just 10 games, the Lake Charles, La., native racked up 37 tackles, managed to snag a sack for an 11-yard loss, had a 29-yard interception return. Defending four passes, Jackson also caused and recovered a fumble for an 8-yard return.

Freshmen: Ready, Set, Go

Tennessee's two-deep depth chart shows five freshmen poised for action. Corey Miller and Jacques Smith at end, Arthur Jeffery at tackle, Brent Brewer at safety and Eric Gordon at cornerback are all in a position to make an immediate impact for The Big Orange. While Gordon and Jeffery have the benefit of a redshirt season, Brewer, Miller and Smith will all step onto Shields-Watkins Field on Sept. 4 as true freshmen.

Diamond to Gridiron

Defensive back Brent Brewer is not your typical freshman. He signed a professional baseball contract in 2006 with the Milwaukee Brewers out of Sandy Creek High School in Georgia, turning his back on a promising football career at Florida State. The second-round draft pick spent five years as a shortstop in the Brewers' organization. Now, the former high school wide receiver has found a home at Tennessee as a defensive back, where he currently is slotted at second-string strong safety behind Prentiss Wagner.

Spotlight On: Senior Nick Reveiz leads the Vols 'D' into the 2010 season. Once an undersized walk-on from the outskirts of Knoxville, the linebacker with a Big Orange pedigree now stands alongside giants in Tennessee football history.

Inside the Box

A pair of defensive staff members will take in a Neyland Stadium game from the coaches' booth. Defensive backs coach Terry Joseph and defensive graduate assistant Peter Sirmon will be looking down on the action from the Tom Elam Press Box. Offensive coordinator Jim Chaney will also direct the Vols from the coaches' booth.

Kicking Up a Storm

Senior placekicker Daniel Lincoln earned starting PK duties and will attempt to cement his mark in the Big Orange record books. The Ocala, Fla., native lacks just 11 field goals to tie John Becksvort for fifth place in Vols history for career field goals.

In his career as a four year starter for Tennessee, Lincoln has scored 230 points on 107 PATs and 41 field goals. He currently ranks ninth all-time in career scoring, just 62 points outside of the top five. Lincoln's career long field goal of 49 yards came in last season's win over South Carolina on Oct. 31.

Punt, Chad! Punt!

Like Lincoln, Chad Cunningham enters his senior season having secured the starting punter spot. During his career on The Hill, the Dawsonville, Ga., native has 15 punts that went for 50 yards or more, including a career-best 58-yarder against Alabama in 2009. His 41.2 yard career average is on pace to leave Cunningham well inside the top 10 in Vols history at eighth.

Okuuuuuuuuuuuu!

When sophomore tailback David Oku takes the field, he isn't being booed. Vols fans are simply elongating the last sound of his last name as a sign of their support as he zips down the field on one of his stellar kick returns. In his freshman campaign, Oku raced to 863 yards on 33 kick returns for a 26.2-yard average.

Just 37 yards out of the all-time top 10 in career yards on kick returns, the Midwest City, Okla., native ranks third all-time at UT in kick return yardage in a season.

► Head Coach Derek Dooley

The Dooley Era Begins

Derek Dooley may own a rival's pedigree, but to Tennessee fans he felt just like one of their own when the Vols introduced him as the school's 22nd head coach in January.

Dooley, 41, comes to UT after three seasons as head coach at Louisiana Tech, where he also served as athletics director since March 2008. He was the only athletics director serving as head football coach on the FBS level.

Dooley is the youngest son of Georgia legend Vince Dooley, who coached the Bulldogs for 25 seasons and claimed six league crowns and the 1980 national title.

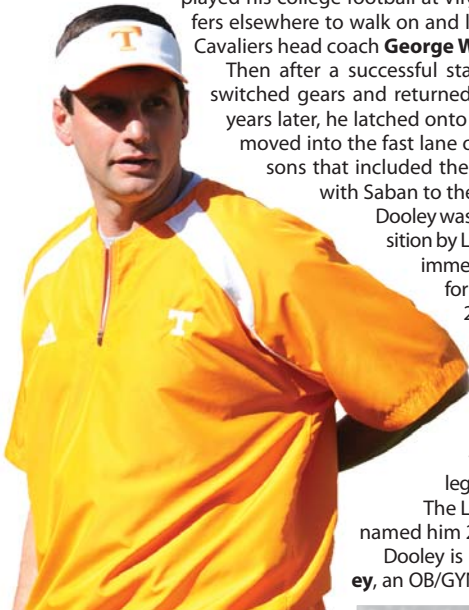

Dooley never accepted the predetermined path to success. He played his college football at Virginia, turning down scholarship offers elsewhere to walk on and later earn his own scholarship from Cavaliers head coach George Welsh.

Then after a successful start to the legal profession, Dooley switched gears and returned to his love of football. Four short years later, he latched onto the staff of Nick Saban at LSU and moved into the fast lane of the SEC. After five successful seasons that included the 2003 national title, Dooley moved with Saban to the NFL's Miami Dolphins.

Dooley was named to his first head coaching position by Louisiana Tech in December 2006, and immediately began laying the foundation for future success. Included in his 17-20 overall record was an 8-5 mark in 2008 highlighted by the school's first postseason victory in 30 years at the Independence Bowl. Tech finished second in the WAC that season and played in a bowl game for only the third time since joining the major college ranks in 1989.

The Louisiana Sports Writers' Association named him 2008 Coach of the Year.

Dooley is married to Dr. Allison Jeffers Dooley, an OB/GYN and Fort Worth, Texas, native. They have two sons, John Taylor and Peyton, and a daughter, Julianna. Allison is active in fundraising for the Susan G. Komen Foundation for breast cancer research.

Head Coaching Debuts

Derek Dooley is Tennessee's 22nd head coach and on Sept. 4 has the opportunity to be the 18th to win his first game as the Vols skipper. Tennessee head coaches are 17-4 all-time in their first games. Gen. Robert R. Neyland coached the Vols during three separate tenures and thus had three "first" games. He won all three contests, improving the total number to 19-4.

Coaching Prowess

Head coach Derek Dooley's staff at Tennessee has a proven track record-- eight of his assistants have coaching experience in one of the BCS conferences, five have coached in the NFL and three have experienced the formidable SEC.

Baggett, Chaney, Hiestand, Smith and Wylie spent a combined 24 years coaching in the NFL with eight different teams-- the Baltimore Ravens, Dallas Cowboys, Green Bay Packers, Houston Oilers, Miami Dolphins, Minnesota Vikings, New York Jets and St. Louis Rams.

UT's assistant coaching staff has a combined 66 years of coaching experience in all six BCS automatic qualifying conferences. The Vols assistant coaches have coached in the bowl games that now comprise the BCS a total of 10 times and boast coaching experience in 59 total bowl games-- including the Super Bowl.

Noting the Staff

Chaney, Thompson Return

Offensive coordinator Jim Chaney and linebackers coach Lance Thompson prepare for their second year in Knoxville. Both joined Tennessee's staff in 2009 and were retained by first-year head coach Derek Dooley.

Chaney, arrived on The Hill after three seasons in the NFL with the St. Louis Rams. He was most notably the mastermind of a stellar Purdue offense from 1997-2005, during which time the Boilermakers ranked inside the top 10 nationally in total offense six times.

Super Bowl XLIV winning quarterback Drew Brees played for Chaney during his tenure in West Lafayette, and the pair led Purdue to the Big Ten Championship and a Rose Bowl berth in 2000.

Thompson came to Rocky Top via Tuscaloosa, where he served on Nick Saban's staff from 2007-08. His coaching resume is overflowing--Thompson has been a member of two national championships staffs, has a pair of SEC titles, two ACC championships and a Conference USA divisional winner.

Smith Comes Home

Rounding out coach Dooley's staff was former Tennessee defensive standout Chuck Smith. The Los Angeles native will take over coaching the Vols defensive line.

Best known for his work with some of the biggest names in pro football, Smith spent the past season with the New York Jets No. 1 ranked pass defense. Over the past five seasons, Smith has coached and mentored nearly 60 NFL players, including Albert Haynesworth, Robert Ayers and Shaun Ellis-- all three former Vols. He also worked with Michael Johnson, Osi Umeny-

iora, Derek Morgan and Bart Scott.

During his career in the NFL, Smith recorded 58.5 sacks in nine seasons and served as a captain during the Atlanta Falcons' lone Super Bowl appearance after the 1998 season. He was later selected the "Best Defensive Lineman in Team History," by Falcons' fans.

On The Hill, Smith started at right end for two seasons. He helped the Big Orange to a win in the 1990 Sugar Bowl and earned All-SEC honors in 1991.

Wilcox on a Rising Star

According to a recent Sports Illustrated article, Tennessee defensive coordinator Justin Wilcox is one of college football's best assistant coaches. The article, compiled by Andy Staples and Stewart Mandel, predicts Wilcox's career is on the rise, citing the 49-4 record Boise State amassed during his four year tenure with the Broncos.

Wilcox, 33, led the Broncos defense to 14th in the national rankings in both total and scoring defense and were third in turnover margin.

The General

The Proverbial, Perpetual Yardstick

One of the greatest coaches in the history of the game of football, Gen. Robert Reese Neyland is still, and will most likely always be, the yardstick by which all Tennessee football coaches are measured. For 21 years, he led the Big Orange to win after win and championship after championship. His 173 wins, seven conference titles and four national championships set the bar at one of the nation's finest football institutions.

According to UT legend Gus Manning, no one summed up Neyland and his coaching ability better than Wallace Wade:

"He could take his and beat yours or take yours and beat his." -- Wallace Wade, Alabama and Duke head coach and Neyland rival.

Gen. Neyland's Maxims of Football

1. The team that makes the fewest mistakes will win.
2. Play for and make the breaks and when one comes your way -- SCORE.
3. If at first the game or the breaks go against you, don't let up -- put on more steam.
4. Protect our kickers, our QB, our lead and our ball game.
5. Ball, oskie, cover, block, cut and slice, pursue and gang tackle -- for this is the WINNING EDGE.
6. Press the kicking game. Here is where the breaks are made.
7. Carry the fight to our opponent and keep it there for 60 minutes.

UT Wins at Neyland

The Best Just Got Better

The Home of the Vols just got a makeover, transforming one of college football's meccas into an aesthetic masterpiece. The concrete walls that used to hold up the west side of Neyland Stadium were replaced with brick. Below the press box, six new panels display some of the finest to ever don the Orange and White-- Al Wilson, Gen. Robert R. Neyland, Reggie White, Peyton Manning, Johnny Majors and Doug Atkins.

Gate 21 saw additions, as well. An arched entryway, a new plaza and a hillside amphitheatre will greet Vols fans as they return to the loudest house in the land on Sept. 4.

Once inside the gates, another change will be apparent. The west upper deck directly in front of the press box has been remodeled to house the new Tennessee Terrace. Fans can enjoy a private, air conditioned concourse, seat backs and expanded concessions options.

Unveiling of the Statue

Perhaps the most anticipated improvement to the Home of the Vols will not be unveiled until the Nov. 13 homecoming date with Mississippi. As Vols young and old return to The Hill to see the Big Orange take on the Rebels, they will see a twice-life-size statue of the stadium's namesake, Gen. Neyland. The statue will meet its permanent resting place at Gate 14.

Sideline Change for 2010 Season

When Tennessee kicks off the 2010 season on Sept. 4 against UT Martin, the Vols will have a new sideline. The Vols called the west sideline home until 1994, when the SEC began prohibiting student seating directly behind a visiting team bench.

In order to meet SEC guidelines, the athletics department approached the Vice Chancellor of Student Affairs in December to discuss making modest adjustments to student seating assignments. UT Athletics in conjunction with Student Affairs and SGA chose to add additional lower level student seating in sections J and K to offset the seat adjustments needed in section D to give students a more cohesive student section.

When at Neyland Stadium...

The Vols have been even more dominant in home openers, going 89-18-5 (.817) all-time in the

■ With an all-time record of 428-106-17 (.795), the Home of the Vols is the nation's second winningest college football venue. Only Georgia Tech's Bobby Dodd Stadium has more wins (433), but is eight years older than Neyland Stadium.

Kelly Named Sideline Reporter

Former Tennessee quarterback Andy Kelly is the Vol Network's new sideline reporter for UT football broadcasts this fall. Kelly teams with Bob Kesling, Tim Priest and Brent Hubbs to describe the action of Tennessee football over the Vol Network.

Kelly was a three-year starter for Tennessee from 1988-91 and led the Vols to back-to-back SEC Championships in 1989 and 1990. Behind Kelly, the Vols went 24-5-2 and played in three straight New Year's Day bowl games. He was named MVP of the 1991 Sugar Bowl and earned second-team All-SEC honors his senior season. He left UT as the career leader in total offense, passing yardage, attempts, completions and touchdowns.

Kelly is best known in pro football circles for his illustrious career in the Arena Football League, where became the most prolific quarterback in history over the course of 16 seasons with nine teams. Kelly set several AFL career passing records, including TD passes, yards, attempts and completions.

Kelly served as color analyst on regional televised replays of Tennessee football games with the late Bob Bell a number of years ago before his playing career forced him to give it up. Kelly was the top high school quarterback prospect in Tennessee after earning Gatorade All-America honors at Rhea County in Dayton.

Kelly currently lives in his hometown of Dayton with his wife and young daughter.

SEC Instant Replay 2010

The Coaches' Challenge

The head coach may challenge the ruling of any reviewable play. He retains a challenge if his initial challenge is successful and thus results in a reversal by the replay official. The head coach will then have a single challenge that he may use anytime during the game if his team has not used all its timeouts. Thus a team may have a total of two challenges in the game, but only if the first results in a reversal of the on-field ruling.

The Source

All reviewable video comes direct from either the television network broadcasting the game or other TV production facilities that meet established conference standards. The SEC has used instant replay since 2005.

The Plays

■ Reviewable

1. Plays governed by Sideline, Goal Line, End Zone, and End Line:

- Scoring Plays, including the ball in possession of a runner breaking the plane of the goal line
- Runner/receiver in or out of bounds
- Recovery of loose ball in and out of bounds

2. Passing Plays:

- Pass ruled complete/ incomplete/ intercepted in the field of play and end zones
- Touching of a forward pass by a player or an official
- Illegal forward pass or illegal handing off beyond the line of scrimmage
- Illegal forward pass or illegal handing off after change of possession
- Forward or backward pass thrown from behind the line of scrimmage
- Quarterback (Passer) starts arm forward, ball comes loose and play is ruled incomplete (if ball is quickly recovered)
- Quarterback (Passer) throws incomplete swing pass that is close to being forward or backward, and pass is ruled forward (if ball is quickly recovered)

3. Miscellaneous:

- Runner ruled not down.
- Runner ruled down (when ball carrier is judged down by rule and the ball is fumbled, play may be reviewed if recovery of ball occurs in the immediate action following fumble and is prior to any official signaling ball is dead. Also reviewable when runner is ruled out of bounds near goal line.)
- Forward progress with respect to first down
- Touching of a kick
- Number of players on field
- Clock adjustments (in conjunction with reviewed plays)
- Fourth-down/try fumble plays
- Field Goal Attempts (only when ball is ruled below or above the crossbar, inside or outside the uprights when it is lower than the top of the uprights.)

- The game clock expires at the end of a half. If at the end of the game, the time may be restored to the clock only if the score is tied or the team that would next snap the ball trails by eight points or fewer.

■ Not Reviewable

- Fighting participants
- Off-sides/Encroachment
- Pass interference
- Roughing passer/kicker
- Illegal formations
- Taunting/Other unsportsmanlike conduct
- Face mask
- Taunting
- Illegal blocks
- Holding
- Personal fouls

The Process

Each SEC football stadium has a secured replay booth equipped with the HD Instant Replay system provided by XOS Digital. Three individuals work in the booth for the duration of the game: 1. Replay Official, 2. Communicator, 3. Technician. The Replay Official and the Communicator are selected and assigned by the Conference Office.

A live HD video feed is sent directly to the replay booth from the TV truck. The Technician watches the feed on an input monitor while recording it into the XOS Digital Replay System. The Technician also marks the beginning of each play while the Communicator marks all incoming replays.

Each play and subsequent replay then appears on a touch screen in front of the Replay Technician. As the Technician and the Communicator mark the incoming video, each view will appear as a small picture on the computer touch screen. At any time, the Replay Technician can touch the thumbnail and immediately send that play or replay to the Replay Official.

With the Communicator's assistance, the Replay Official can quickly jump between replays while playing back the video. All replay video navigation is done via a jog shuttle remote controlled by the Replay Official. All video is viewed on an HD monitor that sits in front of the Replay Official. The touch screen is only used to select the replays and to log specific play data in the event a call is overturned.

While all plays are reviewed between the whistle and the beginning of the next play, the Replay Official can stop play on the field by using a pager system. Five on-field officials wear pagers. If play is stopped the Referee announces on the stadium PA microphone that play has been stopped so the previous play can be reviewed. The Referee then proceeds to the sideline headset, which provides direct communication to the Replay Official in the booth. Once the play has been reviewed, the Replay Official notifies the Referee, who then announces the decision on the stadium PA system.

* Ohio Valley Conference game

► Noting the Skyhawks

■ Head Coach Jason Simpson begins his fifth year at the helm of UTM. In 2009, the Skyhawks finished with a 5-6 overall record and a 4-4 mark in the Ohio Valley Conference. Overall, UTM – which competes in the NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision – is 27-20 under Simpson and competed in the postseason in 2006.

■ The Skyhawks return five starters on offense and seven on defense.

■ Senior linebacker Josh Bey is the preseason OVC Defensive Player of the Year. He was second in the OVC in tackles (107), TFLs (16.5) and sacks (6.5) in 2009. Bey was also named to the FCS Senior Scout Bowl Preseason All-American team and preseason favorite for the Linebacker Performer of the Year award from the College Football Performance Awards. He is the only Skyhawk on the Preseason All-OVC Team.

■ In addition to Bey, the Skyhawks also return their second and third leading tacklers from a year ago. Junior rover Kendal Harper had 49 tackles in 2009, while senior middle linebacker Jonathan Utley accounted for 48 stops and 9.5 TFLs.

■ Sophomore running back Jason McNair was named to the 2009 OVC All-Newcomer Team after rushing for 292 yards and four touchdowns. Also a return specialist, he accounted for a season-best 163 yards in a loss to Memphis last September.

■ Stephen Shiver, a Maryville native, is UT Martin's leading returning receiver, having caught 33 passes for 479 yards and three scores a year ago as the squad's No. 2 threat.

■ This is the second time in three years that UT Martin has faced an SEC team, as the Skyhawks lost a hard fought battle, 37-20, at Auburn in 2008. The game was tied 20-20 in third quarter before the Tigers reeled off 17 unanswered points to close-out the game.

■ UTM ranked second in the OVC in scoring a year ago, tallying 27.3 points per game and 409.4 yards of total offense per contest. Through the air, the Skyhawks were the class of the league, leading the conference in passing offense (243.0). However, starting quarterback Cade Thompson of Maryville has graduated and UTM will be breaking in a new signal caller against the Vols.

Connections

■ Simpson's SEC tie: He spent two seasons on the football and baseball teams at Mississippi State in the early 1990s, before transferring to Southern Miss.

■ Tennessee Lady Vols basketball coach Pat Summitt graduated from UT Martin in 1974, where she was a standout women's hoops player. In 1997, her alma mater named the basketball court in Skyhawk Arena, the Pat Head Summitt Court. UTM also designated a street on campus, "Pat Head Summitt Avenue." Although she is excited to see UT Martin in action on the gridiron, she has unequivocally stated she will be rooting for the Vols.

■ UT junior fullback Sam Edgmon and UTM senior safety Joe Dunavant both attended Giles County High School in Pulaski.

■ Tennessee junior cornerback Anthony Anderson attended Austin-East High School in Knoxville with Skyhawks Kenny Jones, a junior fullback, and D.J. Roberts a sophomore defensive end.

■ East (Memphis) High School products Mandela Shaw and Felando Warr are both sophomore defensive backs at Tennessee and UT Martin, respectively.

■ UTM sophomore center Tyler Eady and UT sophomore DB Rod Wilks both attended Smyrna High School

■ UTM offensive lineman Rodney Irvin and Tennessee redshirt freshman cornerback Eric Gordon both attended Hillsboro High School in Nashville.

► 3-0 Vols all-time versus the Ohio Valley Conference

1949 In its first-ever matchup with an OVC opponent, the Vols routed Tennessee Tech 36-6 on Oct. 22, 1949, in Knoxville.

1950 The Vols defeated the Golden Eagles a second time a year later, again in Knoxville. This time the score was 48-14 on Nov. 11. The victory helped UT to an 11-1 record and the Dunkel national championship.

1951 Another OVC matchup, another national title for the Big Orange. In 1951, the No. 1-ranked Vols blasted Tennessee Tech 68-0 on Oct. 27 in Knoxville. The victory helped the 10-1 Vols win an SEC Championship and consensus national title.
